Amazing Grace

*Amazing Grace how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found;
Was blind, but now I see.
'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!
Through many dangers, toils and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.*

Life's Journey

Julia Ann Alexander Bingham was born on June 1, 1950 to Arthur Lee Alexander Sr. and Florene Tealer Alexander. Julia and her siblings were reared by her loving grandmother, Lillian Brasfield Tealer due to the early passing of her mother. Julia received her formal education in the Edgewood School District, where she graduated from Edgewood High School. While in high school Julia was an athlete and was a star basketball player. Julia furthered her education attending St. Phillips College in the Nursing Program.

Julia entered the workforce and was employed for Fashion Fair Cosmetics. She enjoyed making herself and others beautiful and went on to retire from the Fort Sam Cosmetic Department. Julia was also employed with Pittman Sullivan Park. She also took pride in being an entrepreneur owning her own business "Chenault Modeling Agency." She was known to be very caring, and a person that would open her home to anyone in need. Julia was a people person and loved working with others. She was a member of a Gospel Group, she was a City Care Giver, she enjoyed making gift baskets and was an Eastern Star. Julia loved pretty things and always wanted everything in bright colors.

Julia had a relationship with the Lord throughout her life. She was a member of the Macedonia Baptist Church under the leadership of Dr. Jerry Wm. Dailey. She was active in her church singing in the church choir and teaching Sunday School. We truly loved Julia but God Loved Her Best.

Julia was preceded in death by her mother, Florene Tealer Alexander, father, Arthur Lee Alexander Sr., husband, Mikel Bingham and her brother, Arthur Lee Alexander. She leaves to cherish her memory her son, Shawn Chenault (Joyce); grandchildren, Cyrus and Cierra Chenault; brother, Derek Tealer (Patricia); nieces and nephews, Devin Tealer, Daysia Tealer, Patrice Arnold, Ronnie Arnold, Andrea Alexander, Florene Alexander and Lillian Alexander; great nieces and great nephews, Zariya, Briel Mack, LaZaria Allen, Justin Williams and a host of other loving family and friends.

It's best to take care of yourself and do good to others. I really did have a rough night. I don't know why people don't help one another. It's a blessing. I know Jesus loves me. The enemy thinks I don't know what he is trying to do to me when you go through a storm. Hold your head up high. Written By: Julia Ann Bingham

Safely Home

I am home in heaven, dear ones;
All's so happy, all so bright!
There's perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief are over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in heaven at last.

Did you wonder I so calmly
Trod the Valley of the Shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.

And He came Himself to meet me
On that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's will.

There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idle stand;
Do your work while life remaineth —
You shall rest in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you home;
Oh, the rapture of the meeting!
Oh, the joy to see you come!
