

God Saw You

God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to me."
With tearful eyes we watched you
As you slowly slipped away
And though we loved you dearly
We couldn't make you stay.
Your golden heart stopped beating
Your tired hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

Reflections Of Life

Curtis Lee Harper was born March 9, 1962 in San Marcos, Texas to Ira Lee Harper and Julia Mae Rollings Harper. He received his formal education in the San Marcos Independent School District attending Sa Marcos High School. Curtis accepted Christ at an early age in San Marcos, Texas.

Curtis soon entered the workforce and was employed for several restaurants throughout his career. Curtis was known to be an excellent cook and he enjoyed telling funny stories. He also loved spending time with his family.

Curtis was united with the love of his life, Robin Heflin and they remained together until his passing. Curtis was truly loved by all and will be missed. We loved Curtis but God Loved Him Bet.

Curtis was preceded in death by his father, Ira Lee Harper, grandparents, Maston Harper, Ruby Lee Harper, and Annie Mae Rollings, sister, Renay Winnette Crayton, brother, John and brother-in-law, Roderick "Terry" Reece. He leaves to cherish his memory his son, Curtis Winston (Freyda Winston); daughters, Leah Winston and Shenee Adair (Brandon Adair); ; mother, Julia Harper; sister, Deidre Harper; brother-in-law, Billy Joe Crayton; special cousin, Dayton Rollings (Gladys); seven grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other loving cousins and a host of friends.
