Life's Journey

Almeta H. Bell was born November 13, 1957 in Columbia, South Carolina to the late Woodrow Harper, Sr. and Carrie Cook Harper. Almeta received her formal education at St. Martin Elementary School and Eau Claire High School where she graduated. Almeta went on to further her education attending the University Of South Carolina in Columbia, South Carolina.

Almeta soon entered the workforce and was employed in Food Services at the University Of South Carolina for four years. She later relocated to Dallas, Texas where she also became a part of the workforce. Almeta was employed for the Federal Aviation Administration for ten years. In the early 90's Almeta relocated to San Antonio, Texas and was also a part of the Food Industry. San Antonio is where she met and united in matrimony to Leslie Bell. Almeta loved traveling, listening to classical soul music and country western music. She enjoyed spending time with friends and family, cooking delicious meals and most of all delicious baking desserts. Almeta was truly loved but God Loved Her Best.

Almeta was preceded in death by her parents, Woodrow Harper, Sr. and Carrie Cook Harper, her brother, Ralph Harper, Sr., brother-in-law, Eddie Lapsley and her husband, Leslie Bell. She leaves to cherish her memory two brothers, Woodrow Harper, Jr. (Gaye) and Rev. Kelly Littlejohn (Shirley); sister, Andrina Lapsley; sister-in-law, Virginia Harper; one nephew, Ralph Harper, Jr.; three nieces, Shannon Renfro (Cory), Adriane Butler (Cameron), Audrey Turay (Brian) and other loving friends.

Benediction

God Looked

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids,
And whispered "Peace Be Thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
