Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
Of righteousness for his name's sake
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff
They comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of Mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil,
My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall Follow me all the days of my life:
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Life's Journey

Mack Gaines Elzie, son of the late Arlene Elzie, was born May 19, 1950, in San Antonio, Texas. Mack was called to eternal rest on November 10, 2022 after an illness.

Mack received his formal education in the San Antonio Independent School District graduating from Fox Tech High School.

Mack was an extrovert and his love for people was apparent in everything he did. He was a survivalist who knew how to preserve.

Mack was employed for a number of years at Kelly Air Force Base, Community Hospital, and in his latter years he dedicated himself to domestic service. He was devoted to work, people, and his family.

Mack came to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ later in life. His love for the Lord changed his outlook on life. When asked he would say, "I asked the Lord into my heart, and to forgive me of my sins." Mack went on to join St. John Baptist Church.

Mack is preceded in death by his mother, Arlene Elzie, grandmother, Ada Gaines, two sisters, Beverly Aekins and Shirley Charles. He leaves to cherish his memory his twin sister, Maxine Elzie; three brothers, Webster Carenaugh Jr., Amer Lee Elzie, Anderson Elzie Sr. and a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

Recessional

"I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you today that have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing.
Therefore choose life, so that you and your descendants may live,"

-Duet. 30:19 (NKJV)
