Celebrating the Life of William Lee Broomfield Aka "Peewee"

William Lee Broomfield aka 'Peewee' was born to Annie Johnson on January 14, 1968 in San Antonio, Texas. He attended public schools in SAISD. He met and married Angel Crayton Wright in March 2000. To this union he was gifted with a son Claborn Jones who after a period of time chose to change his name to Broomfield. Two daughters were born to this union.

William accepted Christ at Mt. Sinai Baptist Church at an early age under the leadership of the late Rev. L. H. Mills. He later joined Greater New Mt. Zion Baptist Church under the leadership of Retired Pastor Jesse T. Hardeman Sr., where Pastor Tony Grant is now his Pastor.

Peewee loved the Lord and didn't mind letting you know. With all of the other men in the family accepting the call from the Lord his family referred to him as the Bootleg Preacher. You could get a scripture and sermon from him at any given time. He loved to refer to the song "I'm just a nobody, trying to tell everybody, about somebody, that can save anybody." He was the light at Dialysis when he walked in the door, smiling and saying good morning.

If it was your birthday you could always get a song, letting you know how beautiful and special you are. He always let you know you were loved. He constantly had a joke to tell to keep the room laughing, (even if the joke was about his own shortfalls). Even in his pain he kept a smile on his face and shared it with everybody he met.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.*

I took His hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way.

I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship started, a laugh, a kiss,

Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much,

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now. He set me free.

Missing You Always

You never said I'm leaving, You never said goodbye.

You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why.

In Life I loved you dearly, in death I love you still.

In my heart I hold a place that only you can fill.

It broke my heart to love you, But you didn't go alone.

A part of me went with you the day God took you home.

FOOTPRINTS

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonged to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."
