Life's Journey

James Harris was born on February 26, 1946 to John Harris, Sr. and Cecelia Alicia Warfield in Luling, Texas. He was the sixth child of nine siblings, four boys and five girls. James attended school in the Luling Independent School District.

James went on to join the workforce and was employed as a Maintenance Worker in the Denver Colorado Hospital System, Antioch Apartment Complex and later with the Northside Independent School District in San Antonio Texas. In his spare time he loved hunting, fishing and going to the race track to watch the horses run. His greatest joy was sharing life with his beloved wife Mary Francis and his extended family.

James loved watching western movies and was a big fan of the late actor, John Wayne. He enjoyed gospel music and his favorite gospel song was, "Anointing Fall On Me." James was an honored Deacon of Truth for Today Church and the uncle of Pastor Charles Rodgers, Sr.

James was preceded in death by his parents John Harris, Sr. and Cecelia Warfield, three brothers, Norris, John, Jr., and George Harris, two sisters, Elizabeth Williams and Elouise Harris, son, Lloyd Seay and grandkids, Dwight Seay, Jr., and Tasha Seay. A Letter From The Family

James, you are truly going to be missed. We can still feel your presence in our hearts and hear your voice in our minds. We thank God for your loving warm spirit and friendly demeanor. It was a joy having you in our lives all these years, and now you must take your rest. We know you loved your family and especially your loving wife, Mary. We know it was your desire to stay but the Lord's will must be done. We are confident that you are in that beautiful place called Heaven where your body will feel no pain. We're going to miss those country stories of your childhood, your pleasant smile, your big breakfast you would make every morning, our family trips to Las Vegas and seeing you sitting in your recliner watching your westerns when we entered the house. You were truly a gentle, kind, loving husband, father, brother, brother-in-law, uncle and grandfather. Although we are heartbroken to see you go so suddenly, we look forward to seeing you again on the other side. Rest Easy Cowboy, we love you forever!
