Celebrating The Life Of Rose Quinata Cartwright

SUNRISE: SEPTEMBER 30, 1964 - SUNSET: JANUARY 1, 2023

Acknowledgment

Perhaps you stopped by to say hello or called us on the phone.

Maybe you visited for a while, to keep us from being alone.

You may have sent flowers or a card to show you cared:

Possibly you didn't come at all,

But remembered us in prayer. Whatever kindness extended in our bereavement is accepted with a sincere gratitude and thanks that's everlasting.

Lifes Journey

Rose Quinata Cartwright was born September 30, 1964 in Agana, Guam to the late Juan Aguon Quinata and Teresita Diaz Quinata.

Rose received her education in the Mangilao Public School System located in Mangilao, Guam. She entered the workforce and was employed at The Air Force Inn as a Hotel Specialist for nearly ten years, after her resignation, Rose spent the majority of her time as a loving caring wife, mother, and grandmother. Rose enjoyed cooking, crafting, dancing, homemaking, listening to music, and sewing at her local community.

Rose married the love of her life David Ruiz Cartwright August 20, 1986, and this union remained as one until her demise. Throughout their marriage Rose Provided support which gave strength and purpose to her husband's twenty-seven years of active-duty military service.

Rose was proceeded in death by her parents, Juan Aguon Quinata and Teresita Diaz Quinata. She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted husband, David Ruiz Cartwright; two daughters, Roxanna and Francine; son, David Jr.; six brothers, Peter, John, Thomas, Patrick, Frankie, and Jason; three sisters, Christine, Barbara, and Leilani; six grandchildren, Nasier, Nevaeh, Maylani, Violet, Emanuel, Brandon, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, brothers in law, sisters in law, and many friends.
