

Pallbearers

Robert E Mackey
Marcus Mackey, Sr
Nathaniel Jackson
Robert N Jackson III
Marcus Mackey, Jr,
Vivan Mackey, IV
Vivan Mackey, III
Brandon McClain

Interment

Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery
San Antonio, TX

Professional Care Entrusted To:

Carter-Taylor-Williams Mortuary
601 N Center St - San Antonio, Texas

www.ctwmortuary.com

Mrs Vera Williams Young, Funeral Director

Repast

Greater New Genesis Christian Center
110 Hanna Street
San Antonio, TX

*Celebrating the Life of
Overseer Dr. Robert N. Jackson*

Saturday, January 28, 2023 11:00 a.m.

Greater New Genesis Christian Center
110 Hanna Street
San Antonio, TX
Pastor Louise Braziel Benson

A Life of Love and Service

Our father, grandfather, pastor and friend, Overseer Dr. Robert N. Jackson, Jr., courageously finished his race on Wednesday, January 18, 2023. He was 100 years young.

Dr. Jackson was born October 30, 1922, in Springhill (Mobile), AL. He served in the United States Army during World War II, participating in the Western Pacific campaign. It was during this time that he began to know and experience God for himself. He was baptized "in the name of Jesus in the ocean of the Pacific on the 11th of June", 1943. The very next day, he was baptized with the Holy Ghost.

In February 1946, he was anointed to preach the gospel at Glorious Holy Church of God in Pensacola, FL. It was in that same church that he met and married the love of his life, Eula Mae Jackson. Their love created four wonderful children – Joseph, Delores, RoSharon and Robert, III.

In 1949, he was ordained as an Elder in the A.O.H church. He served as Assistant Pastor of the Adam Street A.O.H. church under the leadership of the late Bishop W.T. Phillips. In 1967, God called him and his family to San Antonio, TX where he founded Gethsemane A.O.H. Church at 107 South Pine Street. He served as Overseer over churches in Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Michigan, and Indiana. In 1972, he was then called to the Dayton, OH area where he both pastored and served in ministry at area churches: Mt Zion A.O.H. Church, Emmanuel Chapel, and New Life Worship Center. After the passing of his son-in-law, Vivan Mackey, Jr, he was once again the pastor of Gethsemane A.O.H. Church.

Dr. Jackson was more than just a minister; he was a passionate educator as well. He spent over thirty years in education, teaching and mentoring in Career Planning & Development at Sinclair Community College. Always seeking out knowledge, he completed his Doctor of Divinity in 1991, Doctor of Philosophy in 1992, and his Ph.D. in Christian Administration in 1994.

Dr. Jackson enjoyed golf with his friends, philosophical conversations with his family, holding babies, ministering to others, and living a life that showed the goodness and mercy of God. He was preceded in passing by his mother, Odelia Milligan, wife, Eula Mae Jackson, and son-in-law, Vivan Mackey, Jr.

He leaves to cherish his memory and carry on his legacy, his children – Joseph W (Alma) Jackson, Mobile, AL; Delores R. Mackey, San Antonio, TX; RoSharon E. Molden, Dayton, OH; Robert N. (Carla) Jackson, Dayton, OH; grandchildren – Vivan Mackey, III, Robert E. Mackey, Marcus (Shannon) Mackey, Cheryl Mackey, Diendre Mackey, Anita-Carol Jackson, Joseph Jackson, Jr., LaVersi Jackson, Nathaniel (Heather) Jackson, Casey Schmidt, Elder Bradley (Teshawn) Evans, W. Kristoffer Heidenreich, Kenneth Heidenreich and Kiara (Matthew) Felts; great-grandchildren – Vivan Mackey, IV, Marcus Mackey, Jr., Joseph Mackey, Tatiana Mackey, Jordan (Aidaly) Salinas, Emily Feliciano, Natelynn Jackson, Jazmyne Jackson, and numerous great-great grandchildren, family members, and friends.

The Celebration Service Bishop Dwight Jones, Officiating

Processional

Congregational Selection

Old and New Testament Scriptures – Elder Bradley Evans

Prayer

Solo – Bishop Dwight Jones

Resolution – Gethsemane A.O.H. Church

Solo – Bishop Dwight Jones

*Eulogy – Elder Reginald Middleton
Anointed Temple A.O.H. Church,
Gulfport, MS*

Recessional

