A Child To Lend

*I will lend you, for a little time,
A child of mine, He said.
For you to love the while she lives,
And mourn for when she's dead.
It may be eight or nine years,
Or twenty-two or three.
But will you, till I call her back,
Take care of her for Me?
She'll bring her charms to gladden you,
And should her stay be brief.
You'll have her lovely memories,
As solace for your grief.
I cannot promise she will stay,
Since all from earth return.
But there are lessons taught down there,
I want this child to learn.
I've looked the wide world over,
In search for teachers true.
And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes,
I have selected you.
Now will you give her all your love,
Nor think the labour vain.
Nor hate me when I come
To take her home again?
I fancied that I heard them say,
'Dear Lord, Thy will be done!'
For all the joys Thy child shall bring,
The risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter her with tenderness,
We'll love her while we may,
And for the happiness we've known,
Forever grateful stay.
But should the angels call for her,
Much sooner than we've planned.
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes,
And try to understand.*

Special Thanks

I want to thank the family and friends for all of your prayers and blessing's. I would like to give a special thanks to my sister, Tashia Murphy and her mother, Shirley Brown.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you dropped by to say hello or called us on the phone.

Maybe you visited for a while, to keep us from being alone.

You may have sent flowers or a card to show you cared.

Possible you did not come at all but remembered us in prayer.

Whatever kindness extended in our bereavement

Is accepted with a sincere gratitude

And thanks that's everlasting.
