I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Family Acknowledgment

Perhaps you dropped by to say hello or called us on the phone.
Maybe you visited for a while, to keep us from being alone.
You may have sent flowers or a card to show you cared.
Possible you did not come at all but remembered us in prayer.
Whatever kindness extended in our bereavement
Is accepted with a sincere gratitude
And thanks that's everlasting.

Life's Journey

Georgia B. Lindsay was born September 22, 1934 in Taylor, Texas to the late George Jefferson and Luella Batts Jefferson. She received her education in the San Antonio Independent School District attending Phyllis Wheatley High School. Georgia continued her education attending San Antonio Community College, earning her certificate in Supervisory Skills for Geriatric Care.

Georgia entered the workforce and was employed at Four Seasons Nursing Home as a Nursing Assistant and Caring Provider for many years. She was later employed at Lackland Air Force Base as a Cashier in the Dining Facility. Georgia always had her coat and purse ready whenever someone tried her patience. She was a loving person, caring mother and taught her children to value and appreciate themselves and others. Georgia accepted Christ at an early age but was reborn again at Joshua Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Clifton Philips in 1992. She continued her membership that is now under the leadership of Pastor Melford Keys. She was an active member until her health conditions stopped her from driving.

Georgia was preceded in death by her husband, James C. Lindsay, husband, Monroe Ellison, father, George Jefferson, mother, Luella Sables, daughter, Lisa Jean Williams, sister, Dorothy Stroupe, and her brother, Willie Charles Jefferson. She is survived by her son, Melvin Ellison (Nakimera), San Antonio, Texas; eight daughters, Cynthia Bell (Anthony), Beverly Ellison, Cheryl D. Kelley, Terri Showers, Barbie Hammon (Albert), Janice Sayles, San Antonio, Texas, Letesia Brewer, and Lynette Miller, Georgia; thirty-four grandchildren, sixty-two great grandchildren, eleven great great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of loving family, church family, and friends.
