Family Tribute

Our Mom was known and admired for being a loving and caring person and found no fault in judging people she didn't know. Her personality gravitated towards strangers as though she was a magical magnet. She was small in stature, YES. but was known to seem as though she carried a big stick, commanding your attention. Now, don't get it wrong, she was deliberate in her communication to you, but in a soft-spoken way. (You know those kind) No matter what I needed--a hug, a laugh, some good advice, a smile, a push, a little help in a big way, or even just a friend.... I could always turn to her. For those of you whom had the pleasure to know her for who she was, were blessed by her presence in your lives. We thank God for his many blessings and graciousness given to have had her in our lives for 97 years. Unimaginable joy untold, memories galore. I realize and I am so much more grateful for what a wonderful Mother I have always had in her. A wonderful Mother is a gift from God. She delights in your happiness, encourages your dreams, prays for you, and always sees the best in you. She loves you no matter what. I love you Mom, and every day I had you in my life was a gift to me.
Thank you for being the rock of Gibraltar the pillar of our lives.

She gave of herself, time, and finances to God.
