Life's Journey

Marilyn L. Williams was born on September 23, 1965 in San Antonio, Texas to the late Robert Stintson and Ora Lee Robinson. She received her education in the San Antonio Public School System attending Garner Middle School where she was a part of the girls' basketball team. She went on to attend McArthur High School and continued her education attending Texas State University. She also attended San Antonio College where she returned in 2021 to obtain her degree in Accounting.

Marilyn entered the workforce and was employed for a temp agency until she obtained employment with Hallmark Financial. She was a dedicated employee for fourteen years until she retired. She accepted Christ at the early age of six at Greater Ball Tabernacle A.M.E Church under the leadership of Rev C.S. Marshall. Marilyn continued her Christian walk also attending Calvary Baptist Church where she was actively involved in the Sanctuary Choir and the Youth Ministry. She was known to speak her mind and was a joy when anyone was around her. Marilyn loved getting her family together spending quality time, and she also enjoyed traveling. Her favorite past time was watching the "Golden Girls" reruns. Marilyn watched those reruns so much she would repeat the lines word for word and still would burst out laughing as if it was her first time watching it. We all loved Marilyn, but God loved her best.

Marilyn married Vernon Cooper October 23, 2004 and to this union one daughter, Iris was born. Iris was reared in love and knowing the lord.

Marilyn was preceded in death by her mother, Ora Lee Robinson. She leaves to cherish her memory her daughter, Iris Cooper; ex-husband, Vernon Cooper; Marie Sanders; Jessie Arthur; Kevin Nelson; Carla Nelson; Kayla Nelson and a host of family and friends.

The Recessional

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:
Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."

2 Timothy 4:7-8
