

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Acknowledgement

The Family of Johnny Lee Mayberry

Perhaps you stopped by to say hello or called us on the phone. Maybe you visited for a while, to keep us from being alone. You may have sent flowers or a card to show you cared: Possibly you didn't come at all! But remembered us in prayer. Whatever kindness extended in our bereavement is accepted with a sincere gratitude and thanks that's everlasting.

Life's Journey

Johnny Lee Mayberry was born on June 17, 1959 in San Antonio, Texas to Deloris Mayberry and Ossie B. Johnson.

Johnny received his education in the San Antonio Independent School District attending Fox Tech High School. He entered the workforce and was employed at Broadway Lockers as a Butcher. Johnny lived life gracefully with a smile on his face and did not allow his illness to stop him nor keep him down. He loved going fishing, spending time with his loved ones, making memories with family and friends and was known to be one of a kind. Johnny leaves behind everybody who loved him heart broken, although we are glad that he no longer has to suffer, he will be greatly missed by us all.

Johnny was preceded in death by his mother, Deloris Mayberry; sisters, Eleanor Williams and Nydia Lewis; brothers, Melvin Brooks and John Davis Adams. Johnny leaves to cherish his memory his three sons, Johnny Mayberry Jr., John Michael Mayberry, and Adam Washington: two granddaughters, Kamila Dream Mayberry and Addamiya Washington and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, family and friends.

The Thought: Sweep around your own back door before you sweep around someone else's.
Get your house in order.
Scripture For The Message: Luke 16:19-31
