LIFE'S JOURNEY

Wesley Joseph Hogan was born on May 18, 1949 in Galveston, Texas. He was the second of three children born to Granville and Orelia Hogan. Wesley received his education in the Galveston Public School System and San Antonio Public School System.

Wesley was known to have a deep love for dogs throughout his life. Even as a child he always had a dog and he enjoyed breeding his dogs. He loved to Bar-B-Que and his Louisiana touch on Shrimp Salad and wings were outstanding. He had three women and one boy that were important to him in his life, his mother, sister, daughter and grandson. Wesley would best be remembered as a person that stayed to himself but would always be there if you needed him. He was a true son, brother, father, uncle and pawpaw.

Wesley was proceeded in death by his father, Granville Hogan Jr.; brother, Rodney Hogan; paternal grandparents, Granville and Annie Bell Hogan; maternal grandparents, Willie and Laurel Boulet; extended father, Houston Andrews Jr. and brother-in-law, John Stephens Sr. He leaves to cherish his memories his daughter, Wess'ley Hogan; mother, Orelia Andrews; grandson, Kyree Smith; sister, Linda Stephens; brother, Houston Andrews; nephew, John Stephens Jr.; nieces, Tabitha and Thaftney ; great nieces, Tanisha, Ty'Rece, and T'Asia Stephens; great nephews, Joshua and Courtland Stephens; aunts, Louise Richmond of Port Arthur, Tx and Mildred Simpson of Galveston, Tx and a host of special relatives and friends.

If We Could Bring You Back Again

*If we could bring you back again,
For one more hour or day,
We'd express all our unspoken love,
We'd have countless things to say.
If we could bring you back again,
We'd say we treasured you,
And that your presence in our lives
Meant more than we ever knew.
If we could bring you back again,
To tell you what we should,
You'd know how much we miss you now,
And if we could, we would.*
