Poem

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, work or play.
Task left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship started, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Legacy of Life

Michael Alonzo Robinson was born August 26th, 1962 in San Antonio, TX to Samuel Robinson Jr. and Alberta Richard Robinson. He was the third oldest of four children. Raised on the East side of town where he was exposed to a culture of hard work, community and the Christian religion, Michael received Christ and was Baptized into the Faith at an early age at Huntleigh Park Baptist Church. He attended and graduated from Sam Houston High School. "Michael Rob", as he was often referred to, had a zest and joy for life. He lived life to the fullest while maintaining his trademark smile on his face. Michael offered the world a man with style. He was a friend to everyone he encountered. He adorned many styles of hats through genuine laughter.

In November of 1982, Michael met and begin dating Kathy Elaine Brown. After a short four year courtship they knew they were in love and had found their soulmate for life, and in May 1986 they were joined together in holy matrimony. To this union Mike and Kathy were blessed with five children.

Michael loved adventure and traveling. His love for travel eventually led him to attend Truck Driving School where he received a professional grade license. The fuse was lit and Michael soon began to drive all over the country for the legendary Greyhound Bus Lines. His love for people and innate ability to learn quickly, put him on the fast track to becoming a Supervisor/Manager for the Greyhound San Antonio office.

Michael devoted a lot of his time to maintaining a balanced life of work and fun. One of his greatest fun activities was shooting pool and challenging his "hommies" in a friendly game to show them he was the best. Michael also enjoyed throwing darts and though he played for fun, his end goal was definitely to win.

Michael was preceded in victory by his parents, Samuel Robinson Jr. and Alberta R. Robinson. His son Michael A. Williams, Sister Sandra R. Woods, nephews Jason Robinson and Savon Robinson and father-in-law Eugene Brown and brother-in-law Donald Brown.

Tribute to Dad

Our minds still talk to you and our hearts still look for you, but our souls know that you are at peace. Anyone can be a father, but it takes someone special to be a dad. You were an incredible man. You provided for your family and made sure your children had the guidance they needed. We never questioned if you loved or cared for us because you made it so obvious. We are grateful for you and will miss you every day.

We will always Love and Cherish You

If I could write a story, it would be the greatest ever told. In you, I found the Love of my Life. Your love gave me strength and peace. Together, we comforted each other in times of need and fill each other's heart & soul with laughter and joy. You were definitely one of Life's greatest Blessings. May the Lord be with your soul as you start a new life. Goodbye, my dear sweet husband and God Bless.

I Will Always Love You

The moment that you died my heart was torn in two, one side filled with heartache, the other died with you. I often lie awake at night, when the world is fast asleep, and take a walk down memory lane, with tears upon my cheeks. Remembering you is easy, I do it everyday. But missing you is heartache that never goes away. I hold you tightly within my heart and there you will remain. Until the joyous day arrives, that we will meet again. Michael, you will be so missed and forever loved by all who had the immense pleasure of having you in their lives. Rest in Peace and Joy as you WALK NOW around Heaven all Day.

I Love You, "Daffy" Daphne

We had a wonderful grandfather, One who never really grew old; His smile was made of sunshine, And his heart was solid gold. We will think of him every time we look at the tall trees. But we will be careful, because He's still keeping an eye on all of us, So let's make sure He will like what he sees.
