Obituary

Bruce was born on February 25, 1952, to Clara Ranson and Clifton Miller in Elgin, Texas. Bruce accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at a young age, he was a member of First Providence Baptist Church with Rev. Clifton Byrd. Bruce attended San Antonio Independent School District, his high school years at Brackenridge High School. Bruce later obtained a successful career as an auto mechanic, he dedicated years to Whites Automotive, Sears, Pep Boys and retired from Firestone.

A true family man, Bruce became a father to Bruce Blackwell, born July of 1975. Years later, Bruce met his loving wife, Cherry McHenry in 1982. They later married in 1985 in Seguin, Texas. When he married Cherry he took on the role of "daddy" to Tamika and, a year later he was blessed with another son, Bruce Jr.

Bruce was a humble man of great integrity as well as quiet gentleness and unending generosity. He had a contagious smile that would light up the room and a sense of humor that would keep you in a cheerful spirit. He is survived by his wife of 40 years Cherry Miller, His children Bruce Blackwell, Tamika Brown (Roosevelt), and Bruce Miller Jr., his Granddaughter Zariya Miller His maternal siblings John (Diane), Lillie (Roosevelt) and Bill (Connie). His paternal siblings Clifton (Betty), Russell (Angie), and Mina (Johnny). His one surviving aunt Darleen Williams and a host of nieces, nephews, in laws, cousins and friends.

Poem

Why All The Tears

God and I met
One sad and ill day
Burdened with problems
My eyes drooped to pray
Why all the tears
Don't you know you have Me
If you walk by my side
These things cannot be

God and I met
On another day
Lifted in spirit
My soul longed to pray
Out of this love
The meetings grew
Don't walk wearily alone
God invites you too!

A Family Prayer

From Tamika Brown

Dear God,
I come before you with my family today.
Be our guide in whatever we do.
Help us to live in unity.
I pray that each of us will grow in understanding.
Help us to love and accept each other as we are,
with all our strengths and shortcomings.
I pray that no ploy from the wicked to divide us will prosper.
Keep us unified, in Jesus name I pray.....

Amen

Love the people God Gave you because he will need them back one day.

Final Words

Don't think of me as gone away my journey's just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one.
Just think of me as resting with God from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.
Think how I must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
Think of me as living in the hearts of those I touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and I was loved so much.
Until we meet again, peace out....

Thank you

On behalf of Cherry Miller, his children and family, thank you all for your presence, prayers, generosity and love towards us. Your love and support means the world to us, during this time of sorrow. We are at peace knowing that Bruce rests with his savior and we are thankful for the love that surrounds us because of him.
