

Until We Meet Again

We think about you always we talk about you still You have never been forgotten and you never will. We hold you close within our hearts and there you will remain
To walk and guide us through our lives until we meet again.

-Your Sons, Brandon, Leroy and Chris

God Saw You

God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped his arms around you,
and whispered, "Come to me".
You didn't deserve what you went through,
So He gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best
And when I saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain
I could not wish you back
To suffer that again.

If Roses grow in Heaven

If Roses grow in Heaven
Lord, please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my Daughter's arms and tell her they're from me.
Tell her that I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.
Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.

Life's Journey

Orlanda Marie Daniel Curtis was born on November 11, 1963 in San Antonio, Texas to Willie Charles Daniel and Laura Ann Hill Daniel. She accepted Christ July 14, 1974 at the Union Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. E. J. Johnson Sr. She continued her Christian journey many places but when ever she came back to San Antonio, Texas she would always restore her membership at her home church which was New Union Baptist Church.

Orlanda received her education in the San Antonio Independent School District attending Dorie Miller Elementary, Gates Elementary, Jeff Davis Middle School and graduated from Sam Houston High School. She continued her education attending San Antonio Community College. Orlanda entered the workforce working in the Food Service industry at many Hospitals, Restaurants, and Catering Services. She had a passion for music which was driven by her younger years where she played the Clarinet in middle school and high school and was a part of the marching band at her high school. Orlanda pursued many interests throughout her life. She enjoyed cooking, traveling, reading, playing music, and singing with choirs and groups. But more than anything Orlanda loved to spending time with her family and being “MeeMaw” to her grandchildren.

Orlanda married Leroy Curtis Jr. and to this union three children, Brandon, Leroy III and Christopher were born. They loved their children unconditionally and reared their children with love in the Lord.

Orlanda was preceded in death by father, Willie Charles Daniel, sister, Janie Ann Daniel and her grandparents, Mrs. Janie Woods Alfred and Mr. E. B. Hill. She leaves to cherish her memory her three sons, Brandon M. Daniel (Maisha), Leroy Curtis III(LaTroya) and Christopher J. Curtis; mother, Mrs. Laura A. Daniel; two sisters, Tamara D. Daniel and April D. Daniel; aunts, Brenda Alfred and Thelma Marie McCall; uncle, Willie B. Hill; twelve grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.
