I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

Life's Journey

Toronda Euniece Scott was born April 20, 1985 to Darryl E. Scott and Rhonda Scott in San Antonio, Texas.

Toronda received her education in the San Antonio Public School System attending McArthur High School. She continued her education attending Mississippi College. She entered the workforce working in Customer Relations at JP Morgan Chase. Toronda furthered her career and began working for Maximus Inc. She had a passion in reading and loved to share Jesus Christ with anyone that would listen. Toronda loved spending quality time with her family, was known to be very shy and a protector, she would come out of her shell if she needed to defend her siblings. Toronda accepted Christ April 21, 2019 at New Creation Christian Fellowship under the leadership of Dr. David M. Copeland and Rev. Claudette A. Copeland.

Toronda was proceeded in death by her father, Darryl E. Scott, paternal grandmother, Pearline Scott, paternal uncle, Clarence Scott, maternal grandmother, Margie Williams, maternal uncles, Eric Fogle and Willie Graham and maternal aunt, Loretta Fogle. She leaves to cherish her memory her mother, Rhonda Northen; two sisters, Tekeema Scott and Tatiana Scott; one brother, Tristdon Mays and a host of family and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me I took his hand when I heard him call,

I turned my back and left it all I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things I too will miss Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow My life's been full, I've savored much, Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch If my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me, God wanted me now, He set me free.
