The Recessional

Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last.
Did you wonder I so calmly trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illumined every dark and fearful glade.
And He came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still
Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's Will.
There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth ÆYou shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!*

Life's Journey

Maggie Mae Thompson-Johnson was born to Levi and Lillie Mae Davis Thompson on the beloved day of November 16, 1942 in Fayette County La Grange, Texas. Maggie was genuinely faithful and wherever she laid her hat was her home. She accepted Christ at Antioch Missionary Baptist Church. Maggie continued her walk with the Lord attending Damascus New Jerusalem Tabernacle of Praise. Maggie retired in her spiritual mission leaving a trail from Antioch Missionary Baptist Church to Greater Mount Arie east like Sunday morning.

Maggie was raised in Weimar, Texas where she received her education in the Weimar Public School System attending Karl Downs High then journey to San Antonio, Texas to complete her high school education attending Phillis Wheatly in May of 1962. Maggie continued her education attending St. Phillips College where she obtained her Nursing degree. She entered the workforce working for Southeast Baptist Hospital for three years. Maggie ran across a handsome man from the Gobbler land in Dewitt County located in Cuero, Texas by the name of Albert Johnson Sr down in the jungle on Sand Hill where they express their Genesis 2:24 essence for over fifty years.

Maggie was preceded in Ecclesia by her parents, sister and seven brothers. She leaves to cherish her memory her brother, Ruben James Thompson; sons, Albert Johnson Sr. and James Mann; numerous nieces, nephews, grandchildren and a host of family and friends.

11 He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end. 12 I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

-Ecclesiastes 3:11-12

11 I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

-Ecclesiastes 9:11

1 A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth. 2 It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart. 3 Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better. 4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

-Ecclesiastes 7:1-4
