

Should You Go First

Should you go first and I remain,
To walk the road alone,
I'll live in memory's garden, dear,
With happy days we've known.
In Spring I'll wait for roses red,
When fades the lilac blue,
In early Fall when brown leaves call I'll catch a glimpse of you. Should you go first and I remain,
For battles to be fought,
Each thing you've touched along the way
Will be a hallowed spot.
I'll hear your voice, I'll see your smile,
Though blindly I may grope,
The memory of your helping hand
Will buoy me on with hope.
Should you go first and I remain,
To finish with the scroll,
No length 'ning shadows shall creep in
To make this life seem droll.
We've known so much of happiness,
We've had our cup of joy,
And memory is one gift of God
That death cannot destroy.
Should you go first and I remain,
One thing I'd have you do:
Walk slowly down that long, lone path,
For soon I'll follow you.
I'll want to know each step you take
That I may walk the same,
For some day down that lonely road
You'll hear me call your name.

Life's Journey

Richard Melton Barr was born on May 15, 1953 in Bexar County, Texas to the late Judge Sanders Barr and Lottie Bea Barr. He was the youngest of two children.

Richard received his formal education in the San Antonio Independent School District attending Sam Houston High School. He entered the workforce in Victoria, Texas working at Victoria News Paper and Victoria I.S.D. Richard will always be remembered for being like Fred Sandford & Sons. If you wanted it, he had it. He will be best remembered for his BBQ always being great. One of his greatest pleasures was being a father, papa, friend, teacher and lots of things in his own unique way and a problem solver of many.

Richard was preceded in death by his parents, Judge Sanders Barr and Lottie Bea Barr, sisters-in-law, Roz, Dell Yvonne, Georgia, H.C., Allen, Lillie Mae, his nephews, Dondi and Snapper, brother, Al Freeman, Jr. and his cousin, Rock. He leaves to cherish his memory, his daughter, Theowana Sheridan and family, Dyamond, Daytwon, Roderick and his family, Justyce, DarrylNique and Darryl. His Son Brandon Sheridan (Rhonda) and family; Breanne, D'Aysa, Starshawn, Jevon, Kiya, Elaine and Brachell; Joslyn Byrd and family; Jan Nicholas and Family; Elbert and Family; nephew, Mark McLaughlin; Larry Sheridan and Bronda Pettie, Larry Wiggins, H.C. Laury, Jr. and Family; acquaintances, Wop, Frog, Slim, Sherman, Corey, Kenneth Ray, Hustle, Crew, the Stikk's Family, Sharonn Brew and Family and a host of nieces, nephews, other loved ones and friends.

He Is Your Keeper, I Know That's Right

*He Is Your Keeper, I Know That's Right I want you to listen with the intent to hear Because your time is drawing near, Don't be sad for Heaven's sake, Because God doesn't make mistakes
There's something you must understand
All power is in God's hand;
He stands by us both day and night;
He is your keeper, I know that's right.
All of you have a job to do,
Don't forget what he is trying to teach you, Work together and be with one accord, Remember there's a great reward.
It's today, it could be you tomorrow,
God's precious time you cannot borrow,
My last appeal, I want to make it plain,
Don't let your labor be in vain.*
