Life's Journey

Betty L. Williams was born December 10, 1934 in Crosbyton, Texas to the late, Adolph Jones and Pearl Sanders.

Betty received her formal education in the Morton, Texas and San Antonio, Texas Public School Systems. She entered the workforce working for American Sports Center for over 10 plus years until the store went out of business. She then took on the job of Domestic Work, where she found her passion in helping others, cooking and cleaning for many years. Betty worked until she became a stay-at-home daughter to care for her mother. Betty was a loving wife, mother, sister and grandmother who loved her family dearly. She enjoyed family gatherings sitting in her yard, talking, laughing, listening to her Blues and dancing. Her favorite artist was B. B. King. Betty loved to travel in her spare time to visit family in Seguin, West Texas and Bryan, Texas. She enjoyed shopping at Montgomery Wards and Beacon's. She made sure she had enough dinner every Sunday to feed the whole family and anyone who needed a hot meal was welcome to join in also. If you needed a place to stay, she would say the middle bedroom was available. She loved everyone; she was just the most caring person you could ever meet. She always had a beautiful smile!

Betty married Cornelius (Sonny) Williams on June 19, 1981 in San Antonio, Texas. Betty and Sonny lived a long loving life as one until he departed to his eternal life on September 20, 2004.

Betty joined Trinity Missionary Baptist Church in the mid 1950's. She became a faithful member and served on the Usher Board and was a member of the choir. Betty did a great amount of volunteering with her church family. She was a dedicated member for many years until she became ill and was unable to attend in-person.

Betty was proceeded in death by her husband, Cornelius T. Williams, mother: Pearl Sanders, father, Adolph Jones, three sisters; Ida Mae Hardaway, Rosie Lee Jones and Emma Jo Wilkerson, two brothers; Charlie Jones and Willie Connors, three children; Richard Christian, Cynthia Christian and Clifton Christian, two grandchildren; Charles Anthony Maxwell Jr. and Jordan Christian, one stepdaughter, Beverly Coleman, one step grandson, Micheal Williams and a very special niece, Teresa Kyle. She leaves to cherish her memory her three children; Helen Peterson, Leodis Christian and Theodis Christian, eleven grandchildren; Trangelia (Brian) Christian-King, Shawna Peterson, Roscoe (Sharon) Peterson Jr., Rachel (James) Page, Terrance, Gloria, Brandy, Rachel, Brian, Myron, and Edda Johnson, thirty-one great grandchildren with three of them being very special (Eric, Shun' Tiniue, and Jasmine), five great great grandchildren, one step grandson; Charles Coleman, One goddaughter; LaWanda Gibbons and her children (LaTroya, LaTrenda and Kermaine), one loving great great grandson; A'mere Walker who made sure she was loved and kissed to the end, Four loving neighbors; Mrs. Evelyn, Ms. Loretta, Ms. Annie Mae and Ms. Mary, and a host of many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

God Bless Each Of You

In Tears

*In tears we saw you sinking,
And watched you pass away.
Our hearts were almost broken,
We wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping,
So peaceful, free from pain,
How could we wish you back with us, to suffer that again.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God welcomed you home.*
