Life's Journey

Douglas Eugene Wright was born on July 16, 1946 in Lockhart, Texas to the late Daisy Wright.

Douglas received his formal education in the Lockhart Public School System attending Carver High School. Douglas finished his high school years as the Valedictorian of his class graduating in 1964. He continued his education attending Southwest Texas University located in San Marcos, Texas. Douglas continued his education attending St. Phillips Community College graduating with his B.S. Degree in Math and Chemistry. He entered the workforce working for Southwest Research Institute for fifty-two years. Douglas was known to be a mastermind at playing dominoes and he loved watching western shows.

Douglas was preceded in death by his mother, Daisy Wright, two sons, Douglas Lampkin and Douglas E Wright Jr. He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Lettie Wright; children, Buster Sayles (Cindy), Angel White(Franco), Douglas D. Wright (Belinda), Tonya Wright and Cicely Wright; two brothers, Willie and Charles Wright; four sisters, Lula Black, Cherlye Sowell, Carol Franklin and Billie Spencer; eight teen grandkids; fourteen great grandchildren and a host of great nieces, nephews and friends. Douglas touched many lives and will truly be missed.
