Life's Journey

Deaconess Ivy Lee Coleman was born on September 10, 1953 to the Late Kitty Coleman and Eustace Belt, in Alice Texas.

At the age of eleven Ivy and her mother moved to Corpus Christi, Texas where she received her education in the Corpus Christi School System. Following her high school years Ivy continued her education attending College where she received her Pharmacist Degree. Ivy entered the workforce working for Civil Services as a Pharmacist at Brooke Army Medical Center. After twenty-two years of hard work and devotion Ivy retired in November of 2015.

Ivy was baptized and filled with the Holy Ghost under the leadership of Bishop Curtis Byrd-Corpus in 1995. She became a member of the then Greater Lincoln Park Temple Church under the Leadership of Bishop William A. Ellis and now his son, Bishop Jonathan D. Ellis of the Conquerors Assembly: (formally Greater Lincoln Park- Temple). Ivy has been a faithful member, Sunday School Teacher and Hospitality Member. In 2009 Ivy was ordained as a Deaconess who served her Pastor and church well. Not only did Ivy serve her church but she also had the desire to serve her community as well. She volunteered in ministry at the Juvenile Detention Center until she finished her course and a Chaplain at Brooke Army Medical Center for 24 years. Ivy was faithful in giving of her time, her talent and her treasure.

Deaconess Ivy leave to cherish her memories, her father, Eustace Belt, six siblings, aunts, uncles, her special sister in Christ and friend, Barbara Carpenter, her Church Family and a host of relatives and friends.
