Benediction

*Our dearest Cleveland was very clear in his wishes not to have a funeral service or a prepared program. He didn't want any pomp and circumstance. Cleve expressed that he wanted to be creamated and requested to have his ashes spread at sea. In this untimely passing, we wanted to honor all of his requests. However we thought it best to come together on today to acknowledge our infinite love for him. Triashun and Xzavier were asked to each describe Cleveland with one word.... Triashun gave two! 1. Silly-the class clown! The center of attention and a joy to be around. 2. Intelligent—She said he was the smartest man she knew. It never ceased to amaze her the depth of knowledge he possessed. Xzavier replied that Resilient best describes his Dad. Cleveland was buoyant. strong. supple. tough. effervescent. elastic. He bounced back over and over throughout his life. That is the definition of resilience. Cleveland served his country honorably. As a Navy seaman He was awarded three bronze stars during The Gulf War. Cleveland was a wonderful, loyal and loving husband to Triashun. They met as teenagers in 1985 and have been married 24 years-this stands as a testament of their love for one another. Cleveland was the proud father of his only child, Xzavier. His son was his heart. Cleveland was Paw Paw to his only grandson Kingston. Paw Paw was that little guys hero. Cleveland was a son, an uncle, nephew, in-law, a friend and an all around great man that we all loved so deeply and so dearly. He will be missed. *Fair winds and following seas shipmate
