

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me I took his hand when I heard him call, I turned my back and left it all I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work or play Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've found that peace at the close of day If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things I too will miss Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow My life's been full, I've savored much, Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch If my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart, rejoice with me, God wanted me now, He set me free.

Life's Journey

Roneisha De'Anna Williams McCracken was born November 8, 1989 in San Antonio, Texas to Joeanna McCracken Ellison. Roneisha accepted Christ at an early age at Israelite Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. J. H. Johnson. She later continued her walk with God attending New Union Missionary Baptist Church.

Roneisha received her formal education in the San Antonio Independent School District attending Sam Houston High School. She later continued her education at St. Phillip's College where she studied nursing and received her certification in the Certified Nurse Aid Program. As a Certified Nurse Aid Roneisha delivered unwavering love, compassion and comfort to others. She left a very dedicated, joyful, upbeat impression on all that she encountered. In the words of her former co-worker, June "She was amazing, beyond amazing and was there for everything and everyone, through the good and the bad."
