

TRANSITION

Please don't feel guilty, it was my time to go. I know you are still feeling sad, and tears just seem to flow. We all come to earth for our lifetime, and for some it's not many years I don't want you to keep crying you are shedding too many tears. I haven't really left you, even though it may seem so. I have just gone to my Heavenly home and I am closer than you know. Just believe that when you say my name; I'm standing next to you. I know you long to see me but there is nothing I can do. But I'll still send you messages and I hope you understand, that when your time comes to "transition" I'll be there to take your hand.

Her Story

Shelley-Ann Simone Passley-Brown was born August 21, 1977 in Christiana, Manchester Jamaica to Cislyn Passley-Weir and the late Bernard Passley. Shelley-Ann was the only girl of four children.

Shelley received her formal education attending Knox College and Nursing College in Jamaica and San Antonio, TX. She then entered the workforce working in the medical field as a Registered Nurse doing what she loved best, "helping others." Later she formed her company "Shelley Simone Lux Events" where she exhibited her passion for events and floral arrangements. Shelley was known to be a wonderful mother, daughter and sister who was always there when you needed her. She was loved by many in the community and had many families and friends who loved her dearly. Shelley enjoyed traveling, creating luxurious floral arrangements and loved spending time with her three sons, Dominic, Ishmael and Julian. She was a loving individual who was always concerned about her three sons and their future. Shelley loved the holidays as it allowed her to spend quality time with her husband and sons and creating unique floral design for her customers.

Shelley-Ann married Anthony Brown in 2004, they remained married until her transition October 8, 2023. We all loved Shelley-Ann but God loved her best.
