

When Tomorrow Starts
WITHOUT ME

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty In this everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, safely home in Heaven at last.
Did you wonder I so calmly trod the valley of the shade? Oh! but Jesus' love illumined every dark and fearful glade. And He came Himself to meet me in that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread? Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's Will. There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remained. You shall rest in Jesus' land. When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!*

Pat was united in holy matrimony to Michael Wayne Collier August 31, 1991. Their union was blessed with three children, John Michael Collier, Miranda Collier and Amber Collier.

Pat was preceded in death by her parents, Mable and John Payne and her brother, Stanley Payne who passed away from cancer at an early age. For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, and house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.
