

PRECIOUS

Memories

To Those I Love

*When I am gone, release me, let me go
 I have so many things to see and do
 You must not tie yourself to me with tears
 Be happy that I have had so many years
 I gave you my love, you can only guess
 How much you gave me in happiness
 I thank you for the love each have shown
 But now it is time I travelled on alone
 So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must Then let your grief be comforted by trust
 It is only for a while that we must part
 So bless the memories in your heart
 I will not be far away, for life goes on
 So if you need me, call and I will come
 Though you cannot see or touch me, I will be near
 And if you listen with your heart, you will hear
 All of my love around you soft and clear
 Then, when you must come this way alone
 I will greet you with a smile and welcome you home.*

BISHOP ROBERT DOXIE, OFFICIATING

His Story

Gregory Stephon Houston was born April 7, 1965 in Gonzales, Texas to the late Calvin Hodges (Naco) and Elnora Ward Griffin. He accepted Christ at an early age at Tabernacle Of Prayer under the leadership of Bishop Robert Doxie.

Gregory received his formal education in the San Antonio Independent School District. He continued his education attending Job Corps receiving his Certification in Culinary Arts in 1985. He was known to be a very down-to-earth individual who loved family gatherings and his snakes. Gregory enjoyed cooking on Sundays, and his favorite past time was fishing.

Gregory married the love of his life, Tanya Anderson Houston. They remained as one until her passing.

Gregory was proceeded in death by his wife, Tanya Houston and his parents, Calvin Hodges (Naco) and Elnora Ward Griffin. He leaves to cherish his memory his daughter, Denisha Lavalais; sister, Doris Collins; brother, Freddie Houston; niece, Dana Houston; nephews, Richard Houston and Michael Norman and a host of other family members and friends.
