DO NOT STAND AT MY GRAVE AND WEEP

*Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glints on snow, I am the sun on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there; I did not die.*

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

Life's Journey

Madison Lee Grant was born February 16, 1942, to Charles and Otis Lee Grant.

Madison received his formal education in the San Antonio Public School System attending Phillis Wheatly High School where he graduated in 1960. He ran track in high school and abroad. Madison had the desire to serve his country and went on to join the United States Army. Later on Madison entered the workforce working as a Custodian for the San Antonio Independent School District for many years.

Madison was preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Otis Lee Grant and his brother, Kenneth Grant. He is lovingly remembered by his sister, Louise Rogness (David); brothers, Richard Grant (Martha), Charles Grant and Frank Grant (Lois); nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

-Psalm 23 KJV

CROSSING THE BAR

*Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;
For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.*
