Life's Journey

Mother Ethel Mae Mason peacefully departed on Wednesday, December 27, 2023 at 7:59 pm at Northeast Methodist Hospital. While in the presence of her daughter and son, she transitioned from this life to the eternal presence of the Lord. Mother Mason entered this earthly life on February 14, 1930, in Robinstonville, North Carolina, to the parentage of Clency Carr, Sr. and Carrie Bussey Carr.

She received her formal education in the Pitt County Public School System in North Carolina. In 1947, Mother Mason married her true love, Roosevelt Carmack Sr., and four children were born from that union. She later married Thomas Mason. Mother Mason started her career in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at Horn & Hardart's Restaurant as a Hostess in Food Service and later promoted to Cashier. She loved her job, especially cooking and meeting so many different people. Mother Mason began her Christian walk at Evangelical Apostolic Church in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania under the leadership of Pastor Martin Lee Chase. She was baptized in the name of Jesus Christ and filled with the Holy Ghost. Some years later, she relocated to San Antonio, Texas. Mother Mason joined Greater Faith Temple Apostolic Church under the leadership of the late Bishop Horace M. Young, which is now known as Genesis Full Life Fellowship Church, under the leadership of Pastor Douglass Thompson. She was a faithful and devoted servant. Mother Mason enjoyed praising the Lord and serving on the Usher Board until her health declined. She remained a member of Genesis until her passing.

She is preceded in death by her parents, her beloved daughter, Carrie Bowen and beloved son, Kenneth Carmack, two sisters and five brothers, the late Roosevelt Carmack, Sr. and the late Thomas Mason. Mother Ethel Mason leaves to cherish her memories her daughter, Ildine Williams of San Antonio, Texas; son, Roosevelt Carmack Jr. (Patricia) of Sumter, South Carolina; one sister, Lois Green (Hosea) of Forestville, Maryland; goddaughter, Cindy Brown of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, eleven grandchildren, thirty-eight great-grandchildren, thirteen great-great-grandchildren, nephews, nieces and a host of other love ones and special friends.

Come With Me

*The Lord saw you were getting tired and a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you and whispered, "Come with Me".
With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer and saw you fade away.*

*Although we loved you dearly we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating your beautiful smile at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove He always takes the best.
It's lonesome here without you, we miss you so much each day.*

*Our lives just aren't the same ever since you went away.
When days are sad and lonely, and everything goes wrong,
We hear you gently whisper, "Cheer up and carry on".
Each time we see your picture you seem to smile and say,
"Don't cry, I'm in God's keeping. We'll meet again someday.*
