Obituary

Alverna Jean Brown was born in Greenville, Texas on January 22, 1940 to Genevieve Simmons and George Brown, Sr. who preceded her in death.

Alverna's unwavering commitment to her faith began in her youth when she embraced Christ, and she actively participated at Memorial Baptist Church on the Westside until 1972.

Following a family move to the Eastside, she found a new spiritual community at Greater Love Missionary Baptist Church. In 2001, upon relocating to Seguin, TX, Alverna continued her devoted worship at Second Baptist Church of Seguin, solidifying her connection to the community and deepening her spiritual journey.

Throughout the years, Alverna dedicated herself to the service industry, embodying roles such as a babysitter, "neighborhood mother" waitress, caregiver, housekeeper, and chauffeur to the elderly ladies within the community. Her multifaceted contributions reflect not only her professional versatility but also her compassionate commitment to enhancing the lives of those she served.

Alverna was preceded in death by siblings, Paul County, Curtis, Betty, John, Floyd and Raymond Simmons and her beloved 2nd son Alton Bynom Brown and grandson George Thomas.

She is survived by her siblings, James and Eddie Simmons, and Alice Borden. Alverna leaves behind a legacy of love through her five children: George "Kenneth Ray" Brown, James C. (DeAnna) Brown, Karen Renteria, and Christopher (Debra) Brown.

"Granny" is dearly cherished by her 18 grandchildren—Tia, Brandon, Khiari, Devon, Tracy, Antwone, Johnathan, Tremaine, Niecy, Deja, Jade, James, Marlon "Dontay", Marcus, Miquana, Marvin, and Terrell.

Her family legacy is enlarged by 45 great-grandchildren and 7 great-great-grandchildren, and a host of family and friends; each a testament to the depth of her impact across generations.
