Life's JOURNEY

Celebration of Life for JAMES E. ROSEMOND

Precious

James Edward Rosemond was born February 16, 1962 in San Antonio, Texas to the late James Jack and Beulah Lee Cunningham Clack. He accepted Christ at the young age of ten at St. Stephens Baptist Church under the leadership of L.C. Griffin.

James received his formal education in the San Antonio School System attending Healy Murphy High School. He had the desire to join the United States Army National Guard. After one year of service James entered the workforce working for Peterbilt Truck Manufacturing Company for ten years. James then switched career paths working in the construction field for five years. He was known by others to have an infectious smile. He loved and protected his family at all costs. He was very compassionate, caring and considerate of people in general, especially to those that were less fortunate than him. James had perfect comedic timing; his jokes gave you a visual look into his soul. His jokes would leave you laughing with tears in your eyes as he maintained a straight face.

James was preceded in death by his parents, James Jack and Beulah Lee Cunningham Clack. He leaves to cherish his memory his son, James Henry "Jr"; son, D'Auree Henry; stepdaughter, Danielle Henry; sisters, Cynthia Jones and Pamela Keys (Charles), brother, Gregory Rosemond (Lisa); three grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

James's legacy is his love and protection of his family and the major impact he made in people's lives through laughter.
