LIFE'S CELEBRATION

Elizabeth Ann Curtis Watson was born January 16, 1960 in San Antonio, Texas to Venice James Watson and Elizabeth Parson Watson. She accepted Christ at an early age at Mt. Sinai Baptist Church. Elizabeth continued her Christian journey attending True Vision Baptist Church.

Elizabeth received her formal education in the San Antonio School System attending Healy Murphy High School. She went on to continue her education attending San Antonio College. Elizabeth entered the workforce working for the PX at the Ft Sam Houston Military Base. She served as a Resource Provider to anyone in the community who needed assistance. She was always at church for bible study and lunch with the Lord.

Elizabeth was known to be feisty and knew how to get things done. She was kind, loving, always willing to lend an ear, saying a prayer for someone and more than anything, Elizabeth was described as a special lady. She was a single mother of six, but everyone was family to her. She had a heart of gold for God and would sacrifice herself for her family and friends without hesitation. Her heart for the Lord was unwavering and she feared nothing with God on her side. Elizabeth was strong, faithful and would speak that strength into everyone and was a praying woman. She enjoyed gospel music, fashion and dogs. Elizabeth had an infectious laugh and was always being silly.

Elizabeth was preceded in death by her sons, Jerimaine Watson and Venice Cobb, parents, Venice James Watson and Elizabeth Parson Watson, birth mother, Idella Curtis, and her grandson, Jyheim O'Cain Burgess. She leaves to cherish her memory her children, Vincent Cobb, Natashia O'Cain, Latonya O'Cain (Darryl) and Shakerra Lucy (Rick); sister, Lynne Foreman; grandsons, Omareon Cobb and Khalil Rogers; granddaughters, Keondranique O'Cain-Smith, Ty'Yiana Curry, Robin Mays, Khamil Rogers and Jaiviana Calvert; great granddaughter, Khaliyah Smith and many other relatives and friends.

EVERYTHING

God Saw You

*God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you and whispered, "Come to Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away.
And although we love you dearly
we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*
