Acknowledgment

The Family of Errol Conway Franks expresses the greatest appreciation for the show of love and sympathy shown by everyone. Thank you all for the cards, flowers, calls, visits, words of comfort, and prayers.

God bless each of you.

Death leaves a heartache nothing can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal. People come into our lives and leave footprints on our hearts and we are never the same. Don't cry because it's over. Smile because it happened.

LIFE'S Journey

Errol Conway Franks was born December 6, 1950 in Talladega, Alabama to Cecil Franks, Sr. and Josephine Elston Davis-McGee.

Errol received his formal education in the San Antonio School System attending Phillis Wheatly High School where he was apart of the marching band. He had a desire to join the United States Army where he served two years. Errol was known by others to have many talents such as singing, self-taught sewing craft, sketching, song writing and music (tuba and sousaphone). He enjoyed traveling and more than anything he loved spending time and visiting his family. Errol made friends easy, loved to be heard and knew everyone wherever he went. We all loved Errol, but God loved him best.

Errol was preceded in death by his parents, Cecil Franks, Sr. and Josephine Elston Davis-McGee, sister, Teresa Franks and his brother, Brian Franks. He leaves to cherish his memory his siblings, Regina Washington (Ronald), Cecil Franks, Jr., Basil Franks (Deana), and LaTocha Taylor (Eurel); nieces, Angela Volair (Will), Jenise McCarthy, Jordan Uriegas (Tommy), Shamika Franks, Breanna, Jasmine, Natalie and NaTocha; nephews, Bassell A. Franks (Julia), Kamau J. Franks and Joshua Taylor (Trinity); extended Franks, Carmichael, Stowe family, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.
