

To My Loving Husband

*You fought the good fight and you finish the race. God had his plan for you to come to your mansion. No more suffering and no more pain. May you rest in peace. Love, your wife forever,
- Cynthia Bernard*

A Father & Daughter

There's a very special bond between a daughter & her Dad, a closeness which grows deeper through the years. It starts the very moment that his "baby girl" is born and strengthens as she shares her hopes and fears.

All throughout her lifetimes, she is Daddy's Little Girl... She looks at him with such adoring eyes. He teaches her about the world with tenderness and love, she sees her dad as gentle and as wise.

She knows that she can turn to him on any given day, and he'll be there to help her if he can. He'll always make the time for her, that's simply how it is. She quickly learns...he's just that kind of man.

And as they travel on thru life...their love grows deeper still, each grateful for the blessings they have had. Knowing, without question, that the greatest gift of all, is the love shared by a Daughter and her Dad!

Life's JOURNEY

On February 10, 2024, Aubry Joseph Bernard affectionately known as "P-Nut" went home to be with our Heavenly Father at the age of 74. Not only was he a beloved husband, father, and grandfather, he was also a brother, uncle, relative and friend that was loved by so many.

Aubry was born on September 4, 1949 in Crowley, LA to his beloved parents, Audry Bernard and Waver "Peggy" Devlin. P-Nut was active in baseball and football during his school years, graduating from Wheatley High School. He soon entered the workforce and was employed for Clampitt Paper Company. Aubry was a loyal employee for many years until retirement. We truly loved Aubry, but God loved him best.

Aubry was preceded in death by his parents, Audry and Waver and his brothers, James and Michael Bernard. Survivors to cherish his memory include his beautiful wife, Cynthia Ann Bernard; daughter, Wendy G. Smith; son, Cedric T, Smith; grandson and "partner" that he loved so much, Aubrey Louis Sneed to carry on his legacy. Aubry is also survived by a host of family and friends that will remember the smile and joy that P-Nut brought into their lives.
