LIFE'S JOURNEY

Larry D. Fullwood was born July 15, 1950 in Chester, Georgia to the late Deacon Robert Fullwood, Sr. and Margaret Hall Fullwood. He had seven older brothers and sisters and two younger siblings who unfortunately did not survive past birth. His father was a Farmer, so he grew up helping his parents with the land, milking cows, and tending to chickens and hogs. Larry had a happy childhood; he was a good student, with a strong faith in God. He was baptized at a young age.

Larry graduated from Peabody High School in 1968. Shortly after he moved to Miami, Florida to be closer to his older siblings. He then entered the U.S. Air Force in 1969, studied photography and spent almost 4 years in Vietnam. His time in the Air Force came to an end in February of 1973 at Bergstrom AFB in Austin, Texas. Larry went on and made Austin, Texas his home. He had a passion for sports. He played softball for many years, and enjoyed watching basketball and football games, especially the Miami Dolphins. He always loved getting his hands dirty and working with cars. You could always find him on the weekends out in the driveway under the hood of his car. Larry worked as a Truck Driver for over 20 years and rarely missed a day of work. He received many accolades and awards for his impressive maneuvering of the eighteen-wheeler vehicle. He competed in state-wide competitions and was recognized for his safety behind the wheel by his employer, Sysco Austin, Inc., where he was employed for 15 years. Larry was a hard-working, determined individual who was loved by many and would always put a smile on your face. He befriended anyone he came in contact with and shared a laugh anytime it was needed. With God on his side, his charismatic charm, and a loving smile, it is hard not to appreciate the great man that was, Larry D. Fullwood.

MEMORIES THAT WILL

Larry met and married a wonderful woman who would be his wife of 30 years, the late Brenda Faye Fullwood in Austin, Texas. Larry and Brenda married in October of 1977 and had only one daughter, LaRenda, in 1983. The couple became members of Zion Rest Missionary Baptist Church in Austin, Texas, where Larry served as an Usher.

He leaves to cherish his memory one daughter, LaRenda M. Nickerson (Tre); two sisters-in-law, Geraldine Fullwood and Theresa B. Hargrove; one brother-in-law, Johnny Ray Barefield (Annette); niece, Oline Frazier (Thomas); great nieces, Ayanna Marshall-Dawson, Jamillah Marshall and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
