THE LIFE'S JOURNEY OF

Patrick Glenn Brothers

Patrick Glenn Brothers was born December 19, 1969 in San Antonio, Texas to George Loel Brothers and Betty Joyce Williams Brothers. He accepted Christ at Bethel United Methodist Church.

Patrick received his formal education in the San Antonio Public School System attending Lincoln Elementary School, ET Wrenn Middle School and Edgewood High School. Following his high school years, Patrick entered the workforce and was employed as a Librarian at Edgewood High School. Later he changed career paths and entered the Medical Field as a CNA. Patrick was known to be the most unique soul you could ever experience. No matter what he was dealing with he made sure to put a smile on everyone's face. Patrick loved music and his favorite musicians were, Jimi Hendrix and Prince. He enjoyed traveling to Luling to see close family and get good Bar-b-que from one of his favorite restaurants. Patrick was a man of many talents and passions. Above all, he was a man of extraordinary kindness. His heart was his hometown, welcoming and warm, a place where everyone felt loved and accepted. Patrick found joy in the simplest things, and in doing so, taught us to appreciate those little moments that make life so beautiful. Being around his loved ones, whether it be friends or family, brought him so much joy. No matter how much time spent with him, he wouldn't want anyone to leave. Patrick will be dearly missed.

Patrick was preceded in death by his father, George L. Brothers and his brother, Douglas Brothers. He leaves to cherish his memory his daughters, Kaitlyn and Kiamber Brothers; mother, Betty J. Brothers; grandson, Kesahni Del Rosario; siblings, Howard Brothers (Annette), Mark Brothers (Susan), Cleo Brothers and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.
