

THE Broken CHAIN

*We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life, we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.*

THE LIFE'S JOURNEY OF Cathryn Hughes

Cathryn Lynette Hughes was born on October 20, 1957 in San Antonio, Texas to the late Robert Lee and Girlee Hughes. Cathryn was the seventh of eleven children. She accepted Christ at an early age and later, Cathryn joined Progressive Missionary Baptist Church where she was a member for thirteen years.

Cathryn received her education attending Austin Independent School District located in Austin, Texas, and later returned back to San Antonio. Cathryn loved singing her Blues and dancing but more than anything she loved spending quality time with her family.

Cathryn met the love of her life, Henry Sattiewhite. They remained as one for forty-two years until his demise.

Cathryn was preceded in death by the love of her life, Henry Sattiewhite, parents, Robert Lee and Girlee Hughes, two sisters, Bobbie Hendricks and Mary Frances Watson, five brothers, Robert Earl Hughes, Hubert Leon Hughes, Mark Anthony Hughes, Kenneth Lionel Hughes and Aubrey Lewis Hughes. great grandson, Kayson Hughes and granddaughter, Kaylani Lynette Hughes. She leaves to cherish her memory her children, Anthony Tyrone Hughes (Beatrice), Eric Hughes (Sarah), Nacole Williams, Natarsha Dunmore and Tameca Hughes; two brothers, Alfred Webb and Donnie Hughes; one sister, Patricia Riley (Jake); thirty-four grandchildren; thirty-one great grandchildren and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.
