ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The Family Of Norma "Faye" White expresses the greatest appreciation for the show of love and sympathy shown by everyone. Thank you all for the cards, flowers, calls, visits, words of comfort and prayers.
God Bless Each Of You.

To Those I Love

When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You must not tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that I have had so many years
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love each have shown
But now it is time I travelled on alone
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust
It is only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories in your heart
I will not be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you cannot see or touch me, I will be near

And if you listen with your heart, you will hear All of my love around you soft and clear Then, when you must come this way alone I will greet you with a smile and welcome you home.

Her Story

Norma Faye White was born July 7, 1955 in Houston, Texas to Fred Douglas Lackey and Lillie B. Burns Lackey. She accepted Christ at an early age at Alamo City COGIC under the leadership of Rev. Curtis Burns.

Norma received her formal education in the San Independent School District attending Louis W. Fox Tech High School. She entered the workforce working for SAISD Transportation Department and The State Hospital School and later retired from both. Norma enjoyed music, attending church, cooking, eating, playing the Lotto and traveling. More than anything, Norma loved spending quality time with her family and friends and eating Symphony Chocolate Bars. We all loved Norma, but God loved her best.

Norma was preceded in death by her father, Fred Douglas Lackey and her sister, Patricia "Pat" Lackey. She leaves to cherish her memory her mother, Lillie B. Lackey; her three daughters, Pamela "Toni" Hall and her spouse, Darren, Ebony Loving and her spouse, Tino, Latoya White and her spouse, Donnie; her only son, Donald "Billy" Lackey and his spouse, Yvonne; eleven grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles and a host of other family and friends.
